“ I will miss Barb! She was one of the most considerate, generous, and loving people I know. I enjoyed it when she would get a delightful twinkle in her and give a sly little grin and then expound on something interesting – anything from Methodist traditions to cooking. I’m glad she’s with the Lord now, and I know she’s glad to be reunited with Jack; but I’m sad that she’s not here anymore.

“ So sorry for your loss. I met Barb 15 years ago at Bible study @ KUMC. She quickly became one of my dearest friends. Although we actually spent very little time together outside of church activities, we were in touch almost daily and shared so many memories and thoughts about life. I miss her terribly already, but am so glad she is now at peace with our Lord and Jack. Never forget how much she loved both of you and her grandchildren.

“ Barb will be missed greatly as a friend and church member at KUMC . Dave and I have many wonderful memories and times shared with Barb. I got to know Barbara when she attended my Bible Studies at church about 15 years ago. I am confident that she was ushered into the presence of her Lord and Savior by angels and she is basking in the beauty of her new home and reunited with Jack! What a blessed hope we have as believers in the Lord Jesus Christ.

“ We are very sorry for your loss and our condolences to all. The pain of death can be overwhelming no matter what the age. The Bible provides comfort during difficult times. We are promised at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that very soon “death will be brought to nothing.” Then we have the prospect of being reunited with our loved ones right here on earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11) We hope this brings you comfort and hope.
