“Dad, There is a special place in Gods kingdom for you which I’m sure you are there now. My heart goes out to the Piecuch family. Keep in your heart all of the wonderful memories that each of you have. I picture dad kicked back on a boat named “the chug a lug” still watching over you guys. Remember how happy he was to get down to Perryville and cast away. I love all of you guys and are keeping you in my prayers. Love, Joan

“My sincerest condolences to family and friends of Bert. I was fortunate to work and know him, he had a friendly, humorous and kind soul. To this day, i tell friends and family of our last trip to Detroit, and Bert’s fear of flying. He will never be forgotten and I’ll pray for him and his family. God Bless, your friend, Ed
