“ I remember meeting your mommy and your brother. All because of another small world our parents were connected through UAW – Chrysler provided tutoring for their kids and I went to just keep growing with my math skills, something to do and met your brother. It was a wonderful experience. Short time our childhood connections. Your mom and you look so much alike and I never forget meeting her and her wonderful spirit. Interesting how we crossed paths every now and then. Bless her soul!

“ Dear Tina & Eric
so sorry to hear about your loss. Your mom was always nice to me after Uncle Ricky & I divorced. I would see her in the Acme sometimes & we would always talk about the family. Please let me know if there is anything I can do to help you.
