“ Ti Ammo Nonna. I will always love you for everything you where. The love you had for me as your grandchild will always be remembered. I will miss our afternoon- pastini and watching “Price is right with Bob Barker. Our your funny “Come a knock a my door” saying. Noona there is so much left unsaid but I thank you and forever will know you are dancing with Nonno and Chris, as you watch over your great grandchild in heaven and on earth. Thank you for teaching us a culture that flows through our vanes. Thank you for always loving me the way you did. Forever missed but never gone.....
