“ I loved my “damn old brother in law”.No disrespect there. I always called him that and he would grin and tease me about it.Lots of memories riding on his motorcycle to Western University with him for his education. Such a good man, husband, father and grandfather. I will always miss him and hold him in my heart. I know my sister and family are heartbroken . He was my sister’s other half. They completed each other . Rest in peace Danny.

“ The best brother-in-law a man could have. He was like a big brother to me. We had a lot of adventures together. My love for him goes beyond what words can describe. He was a great husband and father and maybe most of all a really good man. He will be sorely missed.
