“ Her laugh, smile and lots of curly hair, a short and sassy personality. What a true and dear friend Linda was to me. Working with her was a pleasure. She was a dedicated professional. Always attentive to her co-workers and clients. She was like a mother, sister and friend all in one for me. Despite our age difference we had much in common. I looked to her for advice and encouragement on many occasions. She was a level headed and practical individual that put up with no nonsense. Always sure to show concern for the well-being of others. A very special person who is missed dearly by so many. She is in good care of the father and joins the ranks of his Angel army. Her Mom and Dad and Pat by her side. Praise To God.

“ Linda was my neighbor and childhood friend for many years. Although we were not touch often over the years, I was aware of her goodness and kindness during those years and our friendship as children remains a part of me!
