“ I was deeply saddened to hear of such a very dear friend passing. Ray and I work to at the Post office, we formed a genuine friendship. Route 531 & 532 is were we share a lot about family. Ray had a big passion for train's that gained some of my interest as well. I went with him a few times to homes were train setups showing would be. I will always cherish the times we spent together. Boomer I wish we had more time, but he knows best.RIP my friend always Michael and family.
