“ I was saddened to hear of Stu’s passing. He was a legend among former DuPont/DuPont Merck employees. I worked closely with him for nine years and loved every second of it. Stu was a master at manipulating the system—he knew the “rules” better than anyone and used them to push the agenda in ways he wanted it to go. He was also a wonderful practical joker—the most creative one I have ever known. Some of my best laughs came as a result of one of the practical jokes he pulled on someone. He was a joy with whom to work.

“ Hi Monica and Lisa,
So very sorry. Stu was such a big and important influence on my life. I do believe he gave me the gift/curse of perfectionism. He was a great Boss and I will always remember him, and you both, fondly. Stay well

“ Monica and Lisa,
We were so sorry to learn of Stu’s passing. I first got to know Stu when Endo moved from NY to DE, and my desk was just outside his office. He scared me a little back then, but I eventually realized he was just an old softy! I’ll remember him fondly, along with his regular greeting, “How ya doin’, kid?”

“ Just heard of your loss and was so saddened. Even though we drifted apart, I remember the good times we had, especially our Christmas Cruise down the Danube River. Hold on to all the good times Stu and you had, sometimes they are the only things that sustain you.

Will be praying for him, and especially you, that you can go on.
