“ I am so sorry for your loss. I had the blessing of getting to know Susan in 2020(writing letters during COVID). She kept a journal of her favorite scriptures and we shared our favorite verses. We became friends. I loved the Big Wall of Cards & Pics she displayed in her room. Happy memories. I loved Susan very much and I hope I helped her cope as much as she helped me. Acts 17:27 was a scripture I shared with her often and she said she loved it too. It says; In fact,[God] is not far off from each one of us. Sending my condolences and prayers to her beautiful family. ❤️

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. I hope you can find comfort in knowing you have the chance to see Susan again. The Bible promises that “there is going to be a resurrection”. (Acts 24:15) At this time “death will be no more”. (Revelation 21:3, 4)
