“ I worked with Nick back in the 80's, at the salon in the mall. He was a class act and loved by everyone. Thinking about him tonight. My husband knew him in a different capacity and we were reminiscing about what a great guy he was. RIP Nick.

“ I already miss Nick so much. My late husband, Don, and I felt we were part of his family with Iren, his daughters and then Vahan. Nick always had a smile, was a talented and loyal friend. I always said “Next to Don, I loved Nick best.” I am sorry I will miss the get together to honor and remember him.
